

How do function signatures associate with respect to partial application?

If a type parameter uses both arithmetic and ordering it must ...

Partially apply an infix function.

What's the problem-case of sections?

How can you get around it?

What should you do if you're unsure of the type of a function you're writing?

Create a new function that reverses the order of the input function's first two parameters.

What's annoying about `length`?

What happens if you don't put parens around a lambda?

How is pattern matching params different in lambdas?

What are `scanl/scanr`?

What are `foldl1`/`scanl1`/etc?

Define $.

What's its point?

Define ..

In general, the direction of association ...

How can composition be used with functions of several parameters?

What's a common use of composition?

What is a common overuse of lambdas?