

What are some other terms for disjoint union?

What kinds of unions does OCaml support?

Give the syntax for exact unions.

How are instances of a disjoint union created?

Give the syntax of open unions.

What does the type `[> X of Y]` mean?

The value of a union instance can be accessed through ...

Give the effective definition of `list`.

Why isn't this the actual definition.

Give the definition of `option`.

Give another syntax for closed unions.