

How do you import modules from the standard library?

How does the `Require` command work?

How can you let Coq know about new library paths?

What is an absolute module name?

Why is loading compiled files quick?

What does the `Load` command do?

How can dependencies-of-dependencies be automatically resolved?

How can you find the available facts concerning a predicate?