

In Perl, all numbers are what?

How large are they?

When are underscore readability separators allowed in numbers literals?

Using `` for exponentiation comes from what language?

Describe single-quoted string syntax..

Describe double-quoted string syntax.

What does perl do with strings that don't look like numbers, when in a number context?

What's the best way to enable warnings?

How can you get more descriptive error warnings?