

What makes a programming language higher-order?

What is a dependent type?

Why are they desirable?

What is the de Bruijn criterion?