How can you compile and load a module into the erl shell?

What doe Erlang programs begin with?

How can you use methods in other modules without module qualification?

How can you make your module's functions available to other modules?

What are the Erlang case rules?

What is an atom?

What are its lexical rules?

CIS 554

Erlang

What are Erlang's primitive data types?

How are lists, tuples, and binaries written?