How do you set your diff tool?

How do you set your editor?

How do you set your email address?

How do you set your username?

What are the three locations for storing Git configuration variables?

What options do they correspond to?

Describe the basic Git workflow.

What is the working directory?

What three operations move files between their three possible locations?

Where are the three places a file can be?

What's unique about Git's storage system?

Where can you get live help with Git?

How do you get help with a Git command?

How do you look up a specific Git variable?

How do you check your Git settings?