Define type system.

What is problematic with the term dynamically typed language.

In what sense are type systems conservative?

What is the main research goal in the study of type systems?

The kinds of bad behaviors a type system eliminates are called ...

What are the benefits of type systems?

What makes a language safe?

Why are there virtually no unsafe dynamically checked languages?

What was the goal of the first type systems for programming languages?